

COMMUNICATION ACROSS CULTURES IN MULTICULTURAL CITIES

November 7th-8th, 2002, The Hague, The Netherlands

Day One

9:00 - 9:30	Registration & coffee in the VIP area
9:30 - 9:40	Welcome by Drs. Berry Minkman, Principal Institute of Higher European Studies
9:40 - 10:30	Keynote speaker: Dr. Henk Vincken, Managing Director, Institute for Research on Intercultural Cooperation, Tilburg, The Netherlands
10:30 - 11:00	Communication across Cultures, from Cultural Awareness to Reconciliation of the Dilemma's by Vincent Merk, Trainer & Consultant in Intercultural Communication, M.A. Eindhoven University of Technology, The Netherlands
11:00 - 11:30	Coffee Break in room 4.47
11:30 - 12:00	Glocal Dialogue, Transformation through Transcultural Communication by Dr. Kazuma Matoba, Associate Professor, Institute for Comparative Research in Culture and Economic Systems, Witten/Herdecke University, Germany
12:00 - 12:30	Discussion in groups
12:30 - 14:00	Lunch in the VIP room (ov 3.37)
14:00 - 14:30	Report of the groups
14:30 - 15:00	The use of Language in Multilingualistic Brussels by Dr. Rudy Janssens, Sociologist, Vrije Universiteit Brussel, Belgium
15:00 - 15:30	Coffee break in room 4.47
15:30 - 16:00	What is Special about Art/Cultural Projects? by Ljiljana Deru Simic. Oracle- The network of European Cultural Managers, Belgium

16:00 –16:30 Managing Diversity in Urban Environments by Roseline Ricco, Research Psychologist, University of Rome “La Sapienza”, Italy

16:30–17:00 Discussion in groups

17:00 –17:30 Plenary

19:30–22:30 Multicultural dinner in the restaurant “De Catacomben”

Day Two

9:00 – 9:30 Coffee & Welcome in the VIP area

9:30 – 10:00 The diversity of Diversity by Prof. Sandra Wallman, Chair of Urban Change, Anthropology Department, University College London, U.K

10:00 –10:30 A Biologist’s view of individual cultural identity for the study of cities, by Richard Pearce, University of Bath, U.K

10:30 –11:00 The city as an arena for the expression of multiple identities in the age of globalisation and migration by Kristine Crane, Psychoanalytic Institute for Social Research, Rome, Italy

11:00 –11:30 Coffee Break in room 4.47

11:30 –12:00 Enlightening the dialogue: Antillians in a Multicultural Rotterdam by Drs. Karoll Kock, Executive Administration Office, Municipality of Rotterdam, the Netherlands

12:00 –12:30 Discussion in groups

12:30 –14:30 Multicultural lunch in the foyer

14:30 –15:00 Report of the groups

15:00 –15:30 The role of the city in fostering intergroup communication in multicultural environments: the case of St. Petersburg by Natalja Taranova, School of International Relations, St. Petersburg State University, Russia

15:30 –16:00 Coffee Break in room 4.47

16:00–16:30 Neighbourhood Transformation and Economic Activities: aspects of urban economic activities in segregated areas in the Hague. Author: S. Santokhi, Program Manager Interculturalisation & Diversity, City of the Hague. Presenter: A.M. Andriol, Chair of the Advisory Council on Multicultural Affairs/City of The Hague, The Netherlands

- 16:30 –17:00 Immigrants'Entrepreneurial Opportunities: The case of Chinese in Portugal by Catarina Reis Oliveira, Social & Human Sciences Faculty, SociNova, Lissabon, Portugal
- 17:00 –17:30 Discussion in groups
- 17:30 –18:00 Plenary